“ what a beautiful service they had for u my baby brother thank you everybody for the encouraging words and your thoughts and prayers for my family it was deeply appreciated.... I know u r in a better place not suffering anymore.. I will miss you every single day of my life but I know when the wind blows and the rain drops on the windowsill and the leaves rustle outside and the sun shines in my face I will think of you because I know you will always be here with me... God and Chad Jackson please watch over our parents family friends and loved ones 🙏✝

“ To the friends and family of Chad Jackson: I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Chad was friends with my brother, Lonney, when we first moved to Avalon in the early 90s. Chad was always nice and didn't join my brother in tormenting me. He even shared his candy with me! I always appreciated that! I can't imagine what you are going through and hope you find small ways to learn to live without him. Sending love and comforting thoughts.

The next to the last sentence was supposed to say: "I hope you find small ways of comfort as you try to learn to live without him."

Words can't explain how shocked I am to know you are now in heaven. We had fun growing up and the memories we shared will always be with me. You were a good friend and always had a smile on your face. You were a great person and I never expected this from you Chad Lee. When I saw the faces on your mom dad and Tori it literally tore me to pieces to see the pain in their eyes. I know you didn't do this on purpose but I wish I knew why. To see a friend leave this earth that way breaks my heart. It really hasn't hit me yet until I go to the funeral home to clean up your hair then it will kick in that your truly gone. I pray for you and your family for peace. I'm glad to know you are better now but you should still be here with your mom, dad and wife. Here I am once again yelling at you probably "GETTING ON YOUR NERVES" I just wish I knew what was going on in your head that day after all this time clean. WHY???? Well I promise to keep an eye on your mom for you. May GOD rest your soul Chad. Just know you were like a brother to me and I yelled at you for a reason because I cared. I will miss you!!
